

Timothy Sutton

BFA Electroacoustics

Concordia University

Timothy Sutton, in April 2007 completed a Bachelor of Fine Arts at Concordia University with a Major in Electroacoustics. Background interests include electronic music and sound composition. He approaches more technical interests such as audio DSP and video processing with concern for their artistic and cultural features.